

October 28, 2014

Dear Grace Church Family and Friends,

In a recent sermon, Rev. Amanda asked us what we thought God looked like. She placed pieces of paper and crayons throughout the pews, and using our imaginations, invited us to draw a picture of God, the way we see God.

It was an incredible idea, and during both the 8:00 and 10:30 services, I was furiously coloring while Rev. Amanda continued preaching. My wife also made a drawing, and today, our pictures of God hang on the refrigerator in our kitchen.

I think what appealed to me in Rev. Amanda's message is the fact that we all wonder about God. We want to know what God is like. We want to connect with God, understand God. And so, we all have questions about the nature of God.

Take a moment right now and ask yourself: What is the one question you would like to ask about God? What do you want to know?

Church is the place to ask those kinds of questions. Our role, my role, is to listen to your questions and help you explore possible answers, because it is through such probing and searching that we grow closer to God.

Beginning this Sunday, November 2 and continuing on the 9th and 16th, we will have Adult Sunday School, a small group class for those adults who would like to ask their questions, about God, about Jesus, about anything related to the spiritual life. We will meet in Grace House after the 10:30 a.m. service. There probably will not be any coloring, but lunch will be served! I invite you to join us.

See you in church,
Andrew