Dear Grace Church Family and Friends,

On Sunday, we held our first, regular Sunday afternoon worship service. Joshua Sommerville, a long-time friend of Grace Church and a very talented musician, led the music and our new intergenerational choir (you can see a brief clip of them rehearsing before the service by clicking on this link: <https://youtu.be/-Z6bNmgWvPw>).

We will be holding the afternoon service every Sunday at 5:30 pm, and on the second Sunday of the month, having a dinner immediately following. If you cannot make it to church in the morning, or if you just prefer to attend church in the afternoon, I hope you will join us. And, if you are interested in singing with Josh, please contact Mr. C at danny@graceepiscopalchurch.org.

See you in church,
Andrew
